ILLONIAN

This is our yearbook —
This is our school —
This is us.

Now we must leave each other.
Now we must leave our school.
Our young years are over.

Let us leave with all our hands clasped
In friendship, understanding, and courage —
Our future is unknown.
May we meet it with the will to succeed and accomplish —
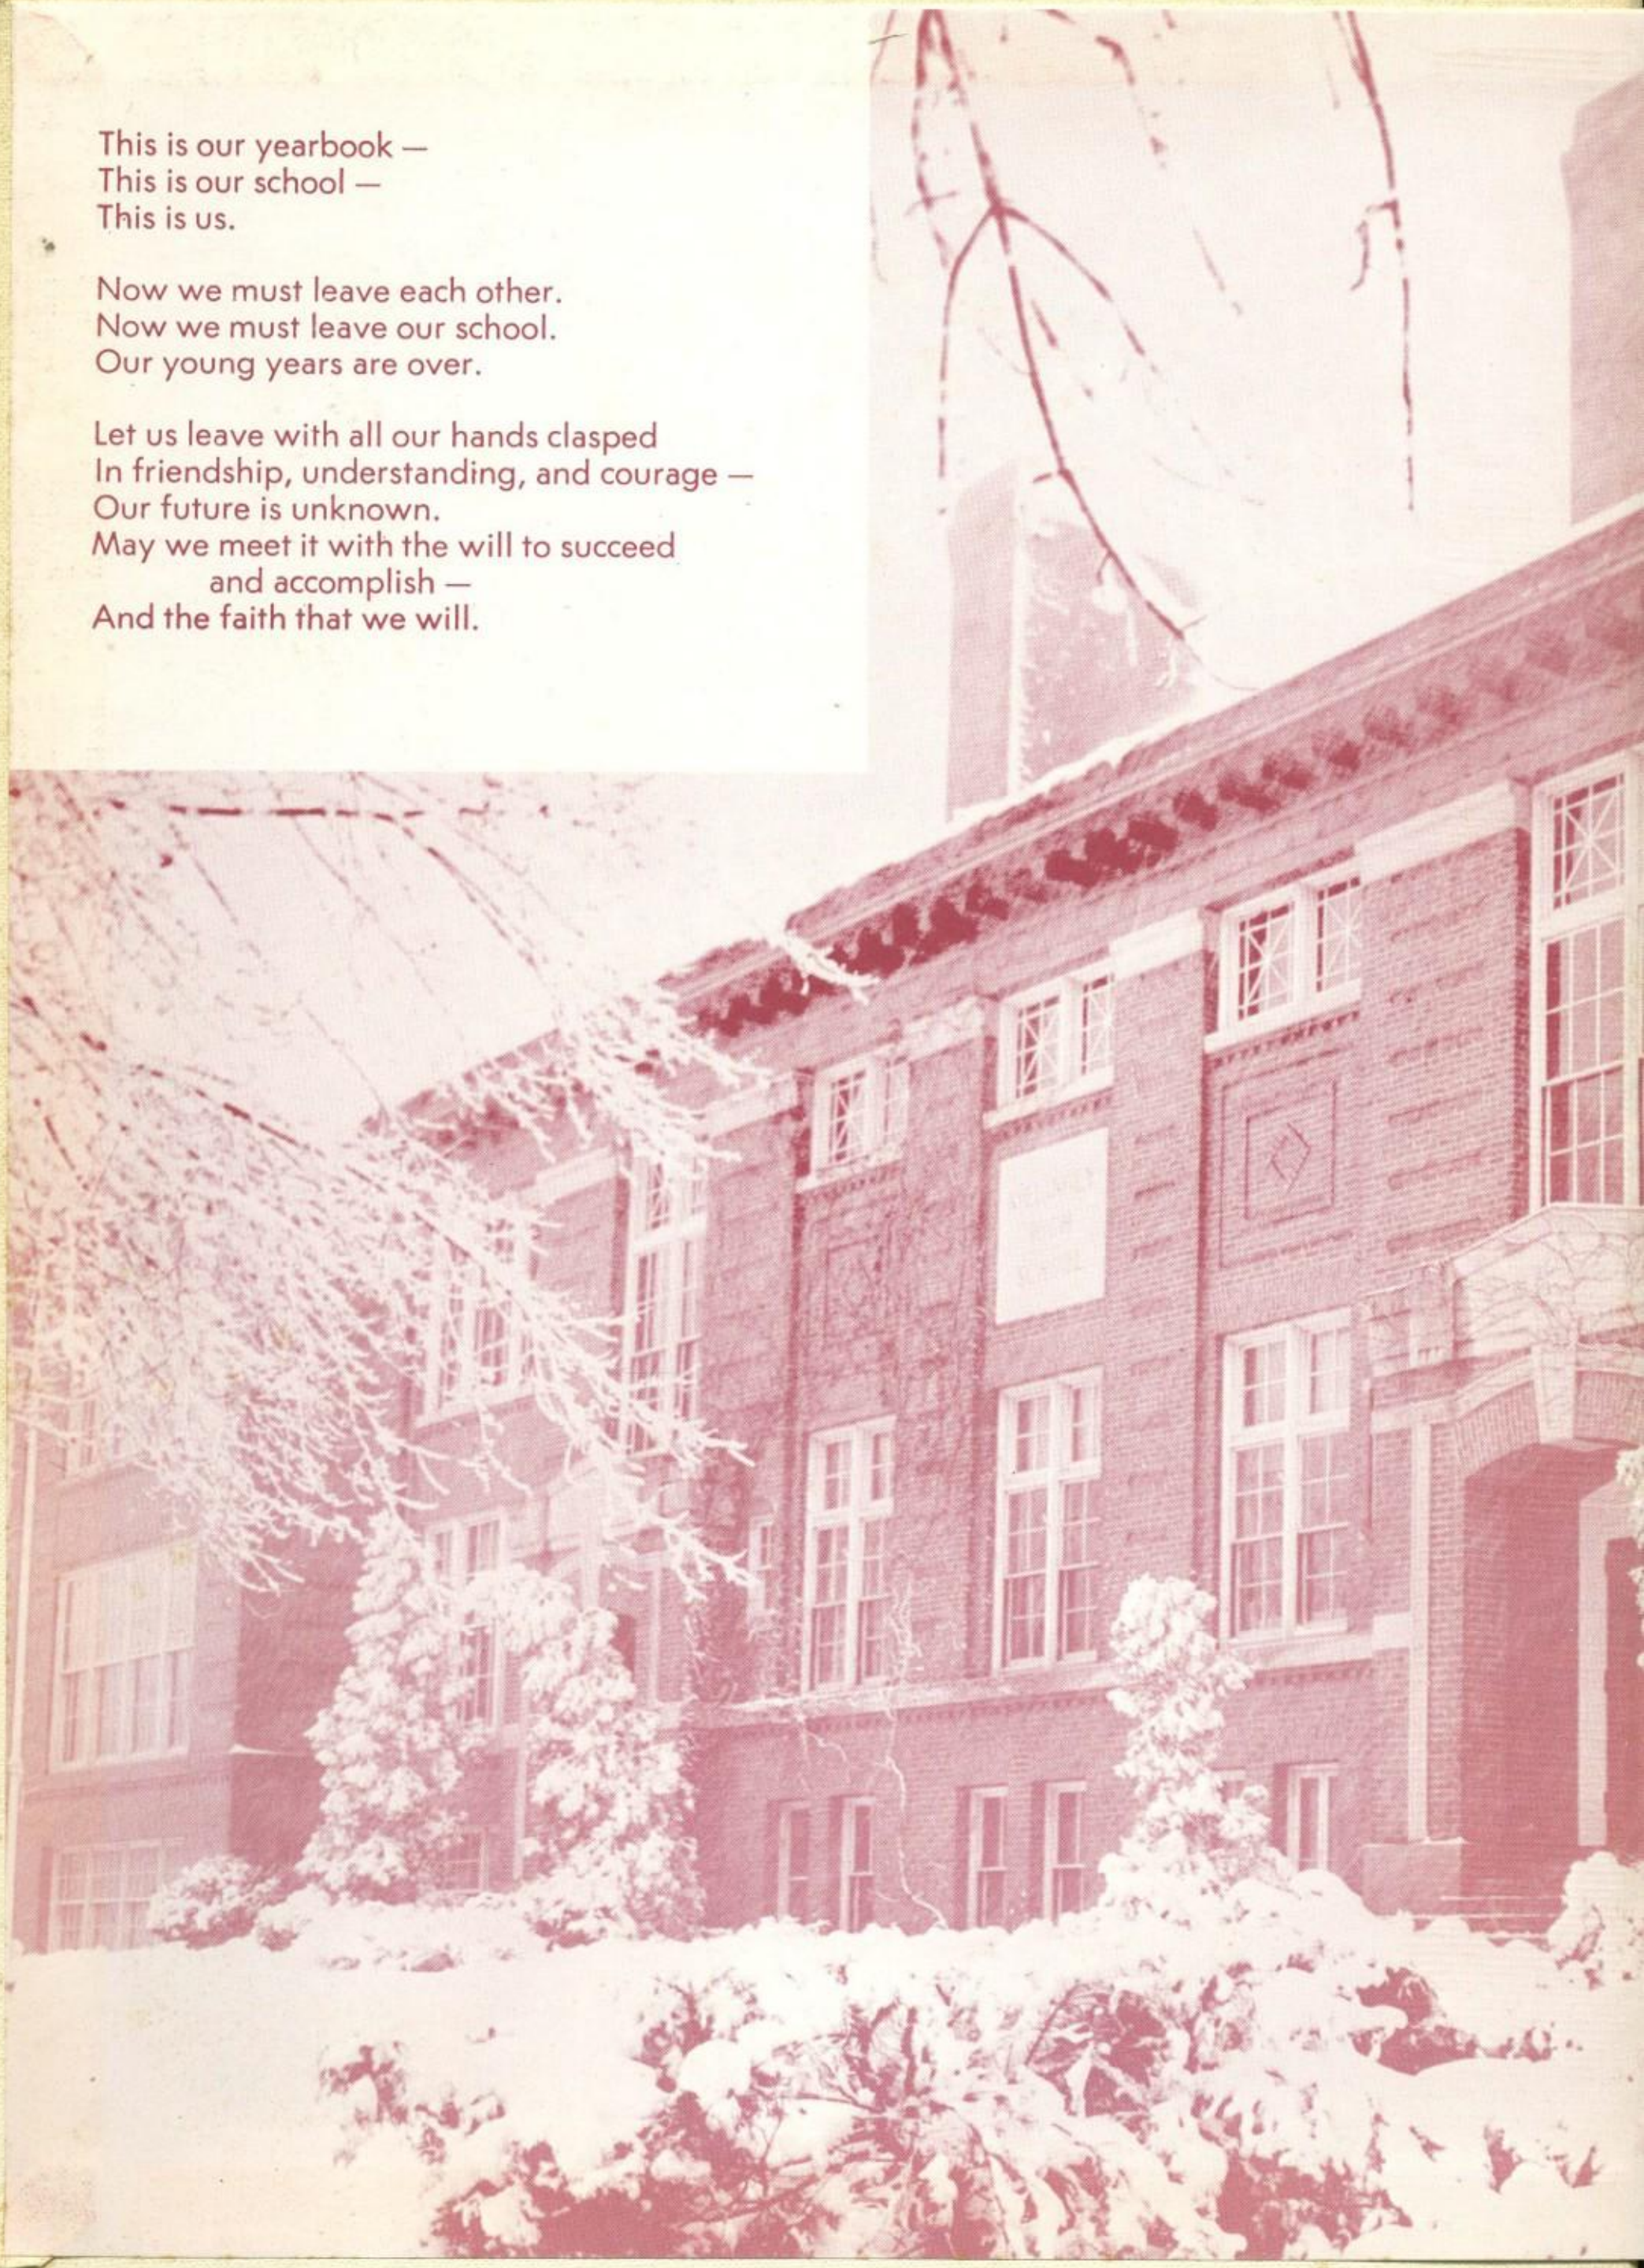
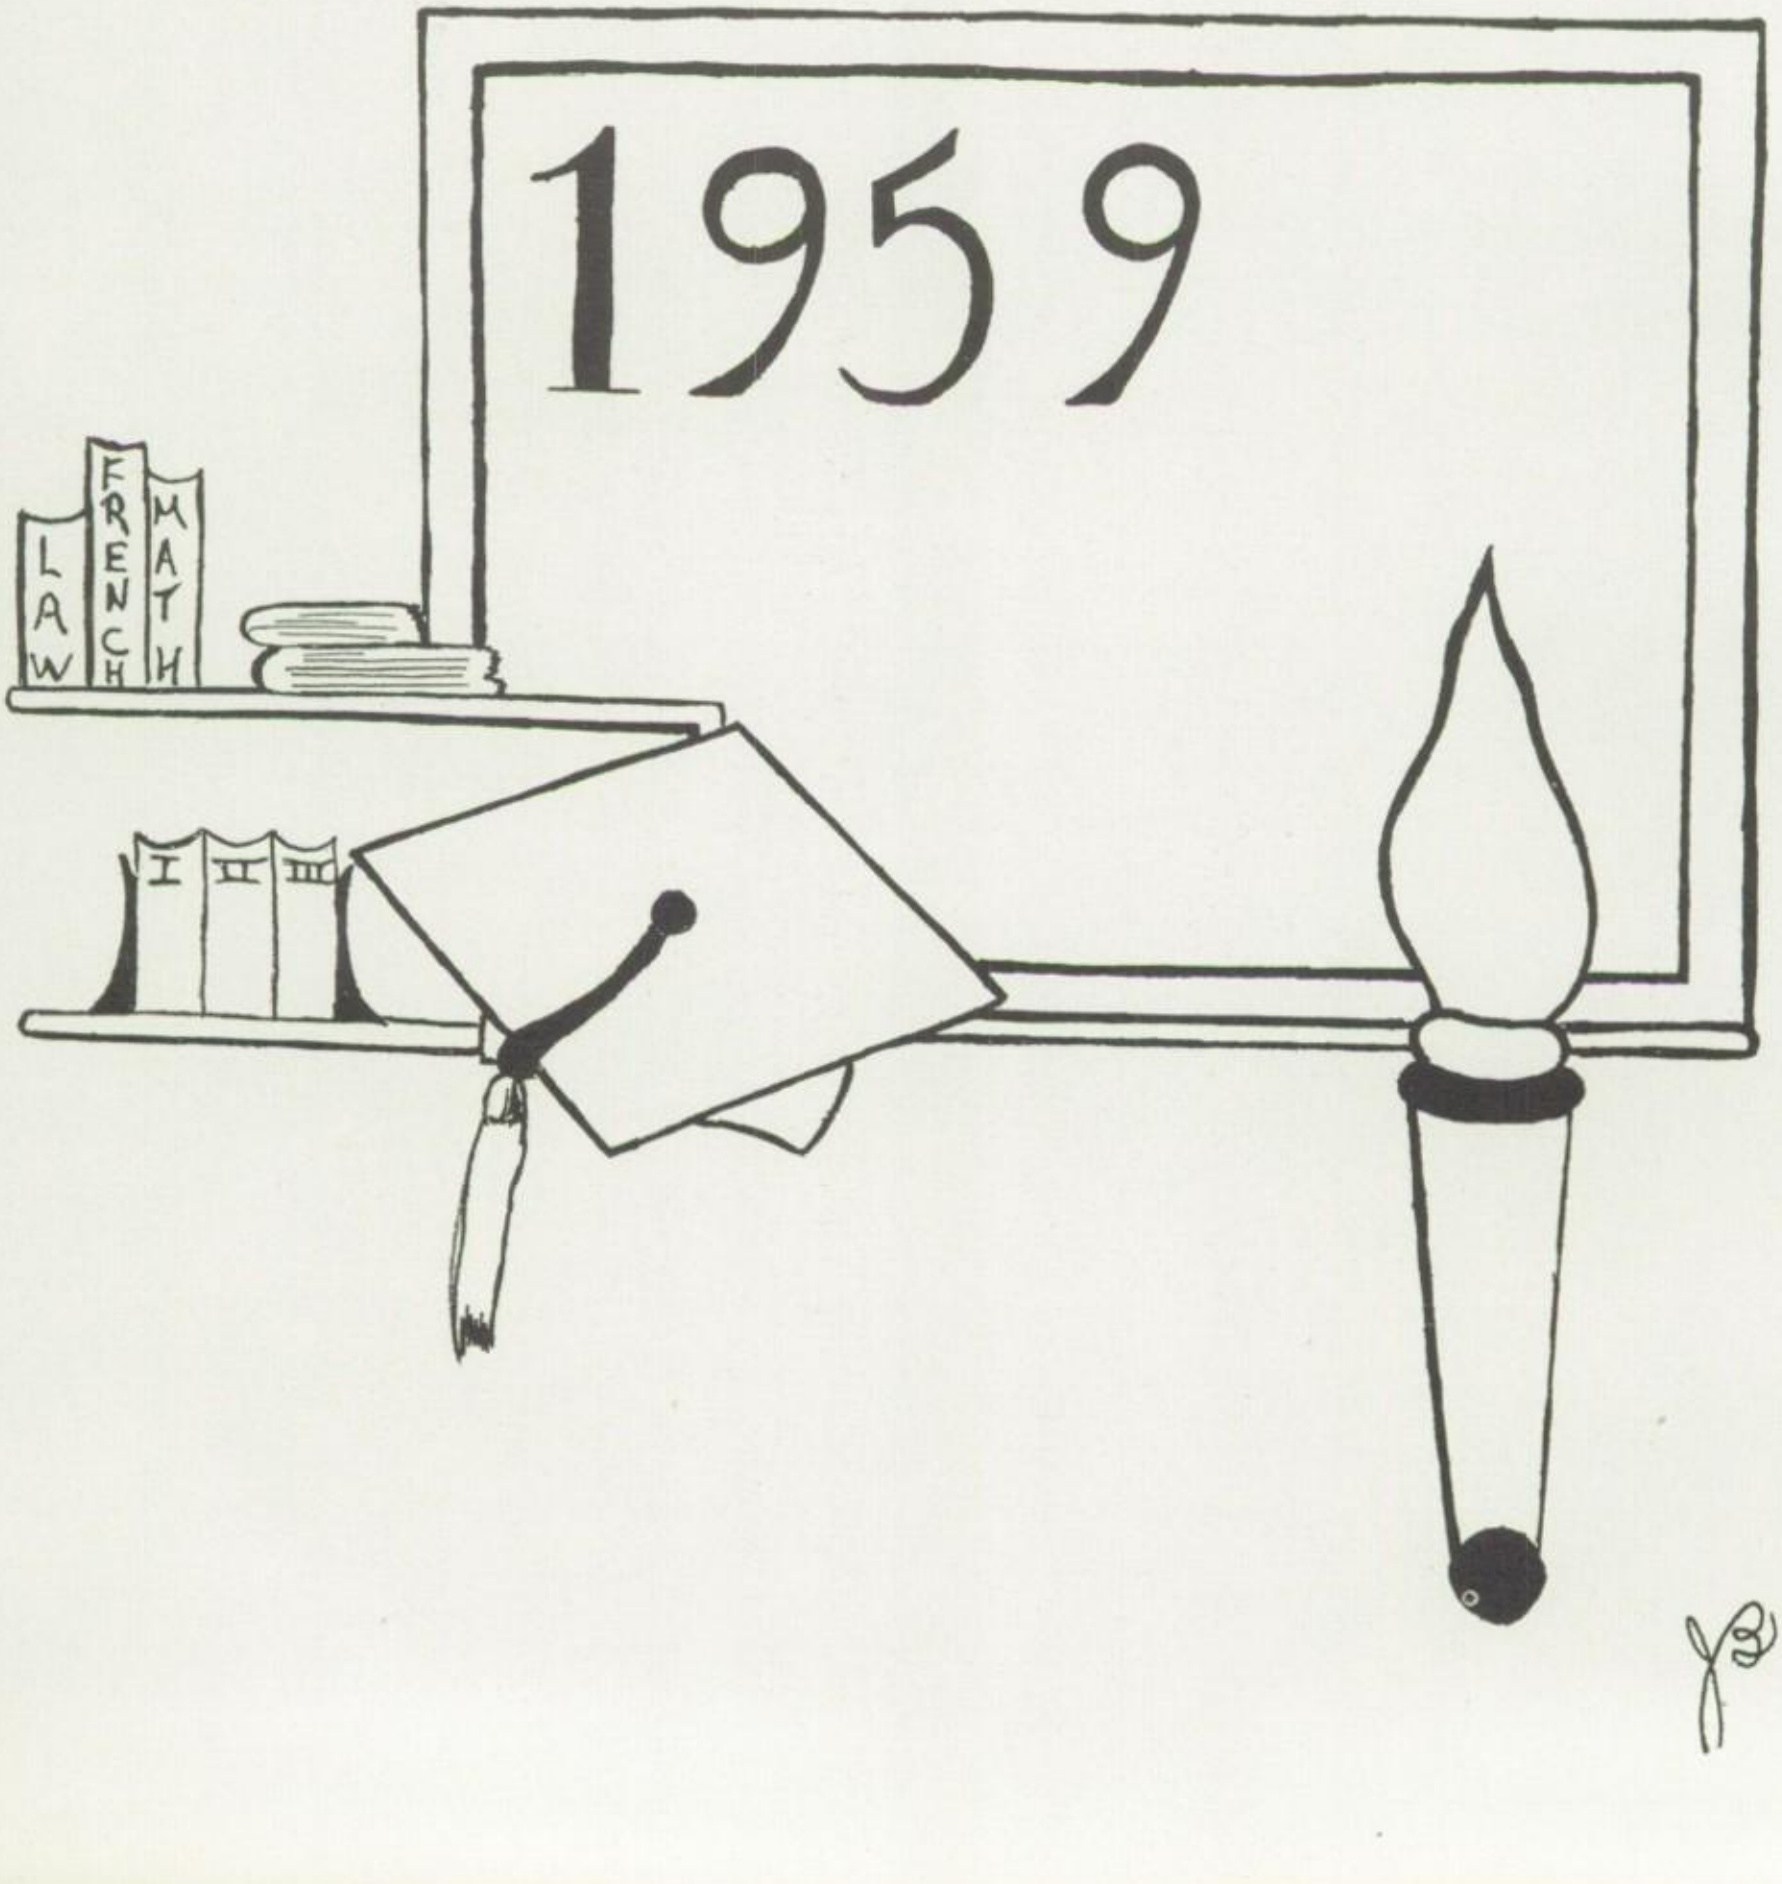
And the faith that we will.



THE KILLONIAN



THE PURPOSE OF THIS YEARBOOK

To show Ourselves — as we are — in the school that we have grown to love —

To show Our School — its physical characteristics, its mental attitude —
its personality —

To give thanks to Our Teachers — for they have been our instructors and our friends —

To show Our Works and Accomplishments — for we are proud of them —

To express Our Respect and Admiration for all of Our School — and the People who have made it the warm and wonderful place that it is —

To be able always to relive the wonderful moments of closeness, friendship, enthusiasm, fun, and sorrow that we have experienced in Killingly High School—

Lord Byron

TO YOU, MRS. BRENNAN...

MRS. BETTY BRENNAN

. . . we, the Class of '59, dedicate our yearbook. You are the one who added the special sparkle to our typing classes. Our class could not have functioned properly without your unfailing aid. You were most efficient in handling the finances of our class plays, taking charge of the yearbook typing, producing all our printed material, and spending many long hours doing secretarial work within the school.

You have taught us more than typing. A greater sense of responsibility and wisdom are ours through your guidance. We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to you for having helped make our four years at Killingly happy, profitable ones. Thank you, Mrs. Brennan.

WE HONOR YOU, MISS GOYETTE

MISS MILLICENT GOYETTE

. . . in appreciation for your guidance during our sophomore and junior years.

Sorry as we were to see you leave K.H.S., we shall long remember you for your invaluable aid both as our sophomore class advisor and United States History teacher. Through your efforts our sophomore class functions were successful. There are some of us who were fortunate enough to have you as a homeroom teacher. It was here that you exercised your true counseling ability. As juniors, we benefited greatly from your knowledge of United States History. Your classes were always informative and interesting and were exemplary of your keen sense of humor.

As we reflect upon these memories we cannot express our full appreciation for your part in making them vivid.

OUR ADMINISTRATORS

MR. ROBERT D. PAYNE

Returning this year after being away since we were freshmen, you have given us excellent leadership, both at the beginning and ending of our high school days. Without going into a long dissertation on each separate act of guidance we need only say a most sincere "thank you."

and . . .

MR. FRANCIS J. FISHER

Our principal has won the admiration and respect of the students of Killingly High School. He has guided us through our high school days and has given us the best leadership and influence that could ever be given to a class. For your constant service we sincerely thank you.

IN APPRECIATION...

. . . To MRS. NIEJADLIK

Through your excellent work as guidance director, we have found the college or career we are best suited for.

Your personal interest in each of us and your enthusiasm have been exemplified in many ways. To you we have gone with our hopes and problems; knowing that you would be ready and willing to help us. Under your sponsorship, many career clubs have been formed. The Future Nurses, Future Teachers, Future Engineers, Future Scientists, K.H.S. Babysitters, and members of the Medical Careers Club all owe their success to your interest and activity. Your able leadership has given these clubs opportunities to participate in activities beneficial not only to them but also to their school and community.

A few of us were fortunate in having you as a teacher in K.M.S. and later as English instructor during our freshman year. You helped us to realize that the four years before us were to be four of the most important years in our lives.

Accept our heartfelt thanks for your continuing services in helping us prepare for our future.

MISS MARY GIBNEY

In Killingly High School there are four people whom we students could not have done without. These indispensable ladies are our secretary, Miss Chartier, our nurse, Miss Gibney, and our cooks, Mrs. Moran and Mrs. Piuze. Each has added her own personal sparkle to the everyday lives of us seniors, and we're sure that the same is true with all the other students, too. We sincerely thank you for all your unfailing aid; your cooperation has made our school days happy and memorable.

KILLONIAN YEARBOOK STAFF

Mr. Brown has given us invaluable guidance and help in making our yearbook a successful one. We shall never forget his untiring efforts to help us in every way he could. The making of a successful yearbook is a big job, and his patience and understanding have always been there to help us. To you, Mr. Brown, we say a sincere "Thank you" for everything you have done for us.

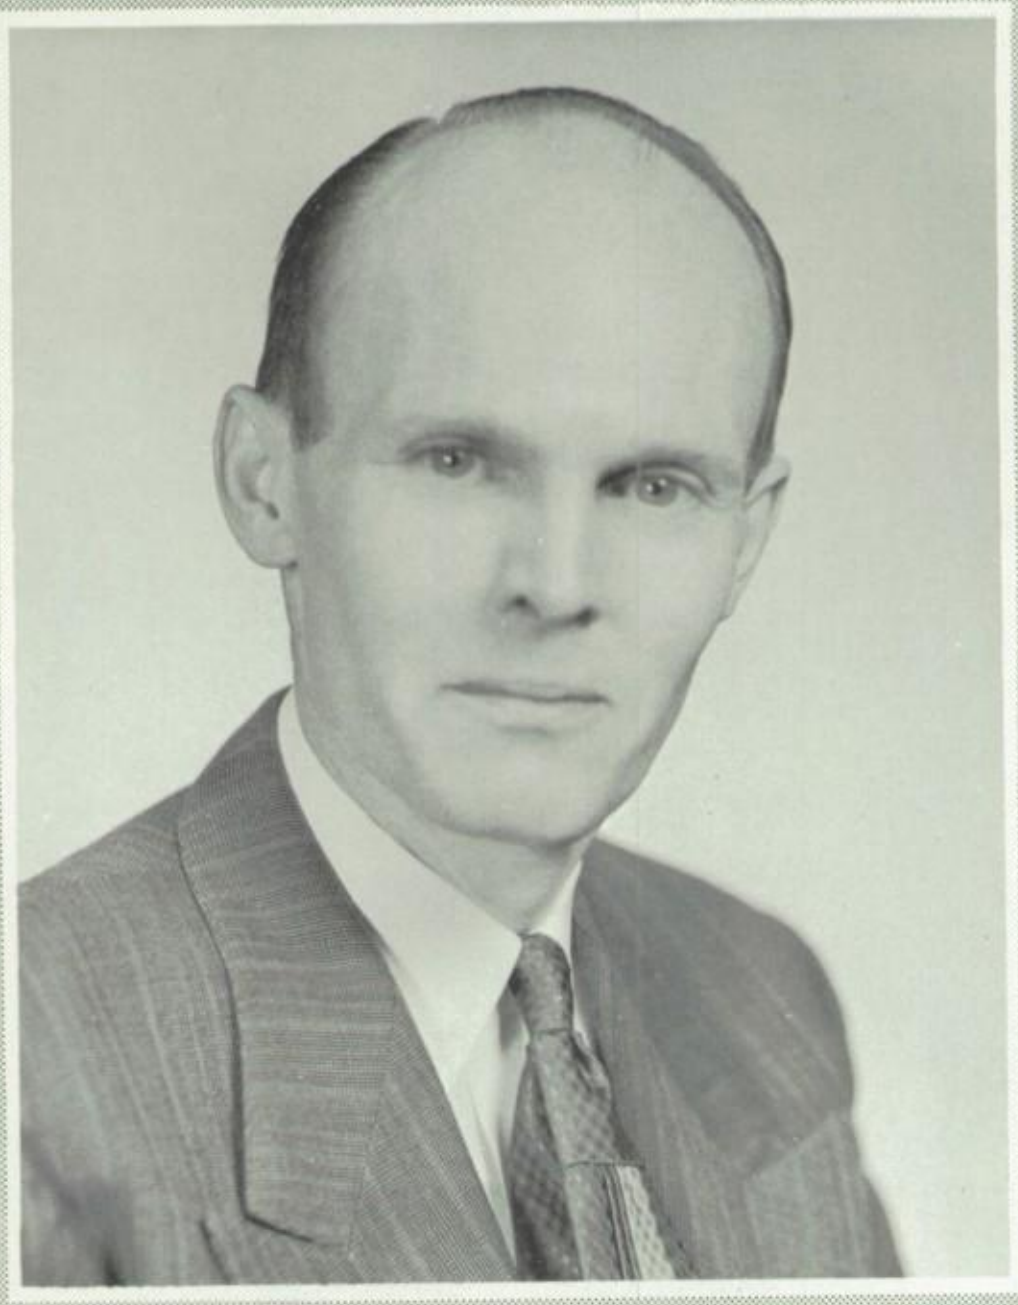
THANK YOU, MR. BRINE



MR. HERBERT J. BRINE

Mr. Brine, the Senior Class owes you a debt of gratitude which it can never repay. Your witty personality and willing helpfulness added that spark and understanding to our class play rehearsals, dances, class meetings, and everyday English classes. Our senior year has certainly been a memorable one because of you.

We can say nothing that will express our appreciation so much as just — Thank You, Mr. Brine, for everything.

The class of 1959 is very proud to have as valedictorian, Jean Nielsen, a member of the Commercial Department. She was inducted into the National Honor Society in her Junior year, proving that her participation in many extra-curricular activities has not hindered her scholastic standing. Jean plans to further her education at the Hartford Airline Personnel School.

Jean Nielsen was the recipient of the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award for 1959. This award is given by the Sarah Williams Danielson Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Jean was chosen on the basis of dependability, leadership, service, and patriotism.

Joan Gallup has the honor of being the salutatorian of our class. In addition to obtaining an average of 93.05, Joan has been active in many extra-curricular activities. Joan, who is a College Preparatory student, was also one of six students selected in her junior year for induction into the National Honor Society.

We wish you the best of everything, Joan, for the happiness and success we are sure you will achieve.

Each year, the Elks Lodge sponsors a Youth Leadership Contest open to outstanding students in the community. Leadership, Citizenship Appreciation, Perseverance, Resourcefulness, and a Sense of Honor are the qualifications an applicant must possess. A list of school activities, accomplishments, and objectives must accompany each application.

This year, the winner of the annual Elks National Youth Contest was Richard Allen, a very deserving and worthy young man.

Each year, two junior boys and one girl are selected to attend Nutmeg Boys' and Laurel Girls' State. The members of the Class of 1959 selected for this honor were Fred Ricci, Richard Rumrill, and Marilyn Grenon.

The purpose of these organizations is to give students an insight into the workings of our government.

Richard Allen and Jean Nielsen were also nominees for this honor but were unable to attend.

ROOM 13

ROOM 14

As we pass out of these rooms for the last time, the doors are closed forever to all the happiness, sadness, contentment, and disappointment we have known on the other side of them.

We gaze back through the locked doors with a feeling of regret. Then we turn to face the even greater doors that are opening before us.

CLASS OF '59 PRESENTS THEIR JUNIOR PROM

On April 25, 1958, we gave our first high school formal. How long we had waited and how worthwhile the wait was! Elaine Linkkila was crowned the queen by president Fred Ricci. Marilyn Grenon and Sandra Page were chosen as attendants.

UN SOIR À PARIS

The theme of the Junior Prom was "Un Soir a Paris." Marilyn Grenon and her committee decorated so well that we actually thought we were spending an evening in Paris. We danced to the music of Eddie Skeffington. Then to end a perfect evening, we went to the Colonial Club.

WHITE MAGIC '59 SENIOR FORMAL

We planned and we worked. We made paper flowers and cut fir trees. We bought new gowns and were measured for tuxedoes. We drew with pastel chalks and carried stones. We sold tickets and printed dance programs. We made posters and voted for a queen. We stayed up until 10:30 Thursday night decorating, and when we had finished — what a beautiful setting for our Senior Hop and well worth all the work!

The night of the Hop! Last minute decorating and last minute shopping! Four hours to get dressed! And when we arrived — it really was White Magic! The music was dreamy and romantic, cool and crazy. The refreshments were "nectar of the gods." The gowns were heavenly and the queen was radiant. Treasure Island after the dance and more food and fun! And then it was over — why did it have to end? It was a night to remember.

MAGNIFICENT

I can see, I can see!

No, I haven't been on a trip, it's an inhalator.

CLASS HISTORY

Our four years at Killingly High will soon come to an end. As we are about to embark on a new path of life, we begin to realize the truth in the old saying, "School days are the best days of your life." It is here, Oh Killingly, that we have built our ladder of success. Step by step, we shall strive to reach its height. Before we depart today, let us relive our precious moments at K.H.S.

In the fall of 1955, we reached the second step of our educational ladder. Our role as Freshmen thus began. How little and bewildered we felt in the face of those big "Upperclassmen." But as the days passed, we gradually got into the swing of things and began to feel right at home.

As the month of October faded, we became well acquainted and were ready for our first class meeting. On November 10, 1955, under the supervision of Mr. Frederick Oliva, the following officers were elected: President—John Warn; Vice-President—Kenneth Brumfield; Secretary—Jean Nielsen; Treasurer—Larry Eastwick; Historian—Linda Joe.

During the month of March, we busily prepared for our most thrilling event of the year, our Freshman dance, "Rock Around the Green." On the evening of March 23, we danced to the dreamy music of Ernie Briere and his orchestra. Upon entering the K.H.S. gym, one was magically transported to the enchanting scenes of Old Dublin. To highlight the festivities of the evening, we honored one of our classmates, Sandra Page, as Miss 1959. Serving as her attendants were Elaine Linkkila and Agnes Sandholm. Class President, John Warn, presented Sandra with a bracelet and ribbon representing her title. These unforgettable moments will remain in our memories as one of the most vivid events in our history at K.H.S.

With the coming of April, everyone began preparing for the Annual Science Fair. We were proud to have two Freshmen, Sandra Page and Carleton Dixon, receive high honors for their projects.

Our Freshman class was ably represented in the Annual Spelling Bee by Joan Gallup, Richard Emond, Dolores Desautels, Peggy Evans and Sandra Schmidt.

We were happy and proud to congratulate Martha Pike for placing second in the Annual Speaking Contest. Her version of "Gramma's presentation of 'Bunker Hill Battle' " certainly stirred the audience and made us aware of the talent possessed in our class.

Everyone agreed that Sandra Page was the happiest girl at Killingly High upon learning that she had been chosen as a new majorette for the coming year.

As the school year neared its completion, six of our fellow classmates were elected to the Traffic Squad. Students chosen included Sandra Page, Fred Ricci, Richard Watson, Martha Pike, Jean Nielsen and Marilyn Grenon

June was here sooner than we expected, and our first year as lowly Freshmen was behind us.

As the summer quickly passed, fall paved the way for the beginning of a new school year. Feeling more secure as Sophomores, under the guidance of Miss Goyette, we launched the year by electing the following officers: President—Fred Ricci; Vice-President—Kenneth Brumfield; Secretary—Lucille Beausoleil; Treasurer—Sandra Page; Historian—Marilyn Grenon.

As the 1956 football season opened, we were happy to learn that Richard Watson, William Bessette, Richard Privee, Thomas Ray, Ulo Murd and John Huhtala would ably represent our class on the K.H.S. "gridiron."

Certainly, one of our first biggest thrills was the selection of our class ring, The El Dorado. How proud and grown up we felt sporting our new rings on Christmas day.

Our dance, "Eleventh Hour Melody," held on May 3, 1957, was our greatest social experience of the year. The gym, gaily trimmed in pink, blue and white crepe paper, added to the romance of the evening. No, we shall never forget the fun we had that night!

In the latter part of January, the Annual Spelling Bee was held. We all cheered with joy when Carolyn Cooper took third prize. Other students who ably represented our class included Sandra Schmidt, Martha Pike, Marlene Richardson and Jacqueline Veilleux.

We beamed with pride when one of our fellow classmates, Wayne Lis, was honored by being chosen the only Sophomore boy to the Varsity Basketball lineup.

Before long, the Annual Speaking Contest was at hand. We were honored to have two talented Sophomores, Richard Watson and Martha Pike win first and second places respectively. Carolyn Cooper was another member of our class who also did a creditable job.

Annual Science Fair awards were presented to the following members of our class: First prize—Richard Rumrill; Second prize—Thomas Ray; Third prize—Larry Eastwick and John Warn.

In the early part of May, the gym became the setting for the important event of choosing new cheerleaders. The five enthusiastic girls chosen to cheer our teams to victory were Jean Nielsen, Marilyn Grenon, Elaine Linkkila, Eileen Gelinas and Lucille Beausoleil.

New members chosen to the Traffic Squad, our Police Force, included Jacqueline Phaiah, Elaine Vadas and Peggy Evans.

Another year had rolled by as rapidly as the first. The completion of our Sophomore year marked the end of our role as "Underclassmen."

In the fall of 1957, we realized our long awaited goal. Now as Juniors, and "Upperclassmen," we looked forward to the coming school year.

On September 18, 1957, we held our first official meeting under the guidance of Mr. Koss, our class advisor. At this time the following students were chosen as class officers. President—Fred Ricci; Vice-President—Richard Allen; Secretary—Ronnie Flagg; Treasurer—Richard Watson; Historian—Marilyn Grenon.

As the latter part of October approached, we were busily preparing for our first major event of the year. On October 23, the K.H.S. gym became the setting for our informal dance, "Indian Summer." The gym was attractively draped in the crisp colors of fall while a scarecrow served as the main attraction of the evening. The smooth music of Ernie Briere's orchestra provided entertainment for all.

In January the Annual Spelling Bee was held. The four Juniors who ably represented our class included Daryl Ingalls, Kenneth Brumfield, Carol Krzys and Fred Ricci.

Jerry Melanson and Russell Avery were the two talented classmates who participated in the 34th Annual Speaking Contest. We certainly beamed with pride when Russell placed third.

Shortly after, Sandra Page was chosen head majorette of the Killingly High School Band. Her wonderful twirling ability and superlative leadership proved an asset both to the band and majorettes. Also chosen as a new majorette for the coming year was Rolande Meunier.

On March 14, six Juniors were "tapped" for membership into the National Honor Society. These deserving inductees included Richard Allen, Marilyn Grenon, Maryanne Juber, Joan Gallup, Jean Nielsen and Allan Seppa.

Early in April four gifted Juniors were chosen as delegates to All State Chorus in Hartford. Jean Nielsen, Richard Watson, Fred Ricci and Barry Spencer were the talented students.

As we entered the K.H.S. gym on the evening of April 25, we were suddenly in Paris. Yes, we shall never forget our first formal dance, "Un Soir à Paris." The K.H.S. walls were artistically transfigured into the scenic views of the Old Seine, while the balcony became a sidewalk cafe gaily decorated in red and white crepe paper. Couples were in seventh heaven while dancing to the music of Edmund Skeffington. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Junior Prom Queen. Elaine Linkkila stepped into the park scene where she was crowned Queen by Fred Ricci. Serving as her attendants were Sandra Page and Marilyn Grenon.

Annual Science Fair awards went to the following members of our class: Elaine Linkkila, Ann Ferriss, Patricia Laine and Allan Seppa.

On May 8 and 9, we made our debut on stage. Under the able direction of Mr. Hoar, our director, we presented "The Wild and Woolly West," a three-act melodrama. Everyone agreed that never before had the auditorium been filled with so much laughter and applause.

In the latter part of May, Mr. Fisher announced that Marilyn Grenon, Richard Rumrill and Fred Ricci would attend Laurel Girls' State and Nutmeg Boys' State.

New members elected to the Traffic Squad included Richard Allen, Daryl Ingalls and Allan Seppa.

At the final assembly in June, Maryanne Juber was presented the U. S. History award for achieving the highest average for the year.

We had completed our third year at Killingly High School.

The summer passed; it was September 1958 and the beginning of our Senior year. We were anxiously looking forward to our most memorable year at K.H.S. Early in September we held our first class meeting. The final leaders chosen as class officers were: President—Fred Ricci; Vice-President—Richard Allen; Secretary—Jean Nielsen; Treasurer—Richard Watson; Historian—Marilyn Grenon.

Senior members on the 1958 football roster included John Downs, Richard Watson and Richard Privee.

Our first great episode took place on December 17 and 18. The Senior class presented "Magnificent Obsession," a stock drama presentation by Lloyd C. Douglas. Due to the untiring effort of Mr. Brine, our deserving director, the Senior play was certainly a boundless success.

In the latter part of December, plans were formulated for the 1959 Killonian Yearbook. The class elected Martha Pike and Sandra Page to act as co-editors.

With the coming of December the basketball season was underway. Co-captains for the season were Wayne Lis, Richard Allen and Kenneth Brumfield. Other Seniors supporting the team were John Downs, Richard Watson and Lucien Joly. William Bessette served as Manager.

On January 16, the Annual Spelling Bee was held. How proud we were to have two Seniors, Carolyn Cooper and Peggy Evans,

CLASS PHOPHECY 1959

It is class day at Killingly High School — June 17, 1959. The seniors are assembled on the stage for the traditional ceremony. Suddenly, with an ear-shattering crash and a puff of red smoke, an object comes hurtling through the ceiling and lands on the stage.

When the smoke clears, a large silver orb is sitting upon the floor with the inscription "Sputnik #59." Dick Allen, fearless and daring, cautiously approaches it—timidly followed by Carolyn Cooper and Marcia Daker. As Dick examines the satellite, a little door in the top opens. The whole auditorium waits breathlessly as Dick slowly lifts out a weird, electrical device. He reads the label.

"Electrocamerofuturograph — whatever is seen through the lens of this instrument will be immediately recorded as it will appear fifteen years from this date. Invented by Gyre Gearloose."

The machine had picked up the senior class of Killingly High. The shock was too great — it crashed.

Dick takes a paper from the apparatus and hands it to Carolyn. She reads:

K.H.S. Class of '59 — in the year 1974.

Fred Ricci, the illustrious class president, is now the father of nine boys, and the manager of his own pennant-winning Little Leaguers.

Cynthia Bunning, the world renowned writer of that great Hollywood gossip column, "Cynthia Sees All," is fast becoming a "millionairess" by reporting the life of that sensational new hillbilly singer, Florette Desrochers.

The State of Connecticut is prosecuting Russell Avery right now for infesting and overrunning this beautiful state with "Avery Rabbits." A herd of his rabbits is now stampeding through the main street of Danielson.

Ronnie Ventura and Elaine Vadas were the first couple ever to honeymoon on the moon. The only trouble is that the honeymoon has lasted for fourteen years. The rocket ship broke down, and they have never gotten back.

Bea Veilleux, Barbara LaBelle, and Jay Wakefield are enjoying their married bliss here on earth but wishing they were in the calm and silence of the moon — among them they have twenty-three children.

Herbie Motz has just added a wonderful new men's fashion center to the rear of every First National Store in the country.

Ronnie Levesque still waits around after work at Gerardi's to carry Mr. Brine's groceries home for him.

Elaine Linkkila, gentlest and most proficient of nurses, with the aid of Jane Podolski, is struggling to untangle the twisted limbs of poor Peter Kissa after his jiu-jitsu backfired on him.

There are yet more nurses at work. Connecticut has not suffered a nurse shortage since K.H.S. graduated its class of '59. In the hospitals of Connecticut can be found Marie Auclair, Jeanne Champany, and Betty Tourtellotte.

A great honor has just come to Dr. Richard E. Rumrill, who, with the assistance of his private nurse Miss Linda Sigfridson, has discovered an anti-daydream pill. Their first patient was Marcia Daker, soon followed by Nancy Terwilleger.

The National Basketball Association's scoring title has just been awarded to Wayne "Gunner" Lis of the world famous Killingly Redmen.

Fernand Lemoine and Wilfred Pelletier are at this moment floating idly around in outer space, while the famous engineer Hedwig Wendler and mathematician Joan Gallup are desperately trying to find a way to bring them back to earth. Their remote-control rocket took off without them.

There is even more trouble with this new space age — Allan Seppa, head of a new science laboratory studying the effects of space life on man, is running around wildly tearing his hair out. Something is wrong with his new food pills! Up on Venus, Joe Miller now weighs 84 pounds, and Barry Spencer weighs 362. But what is worse, Bev Osterhoudt, back in the testing lab, has completely disappeared!

Dick Watson thrilled the world with his stirring voice. Then he caught a prolonged space-age cold. He is now digging ditches.

Peggy Evans, Joyce Fitzsimmons, and Ann Ferriss, who all aspired to be teachers, now have a very exceptional and distinctive position. They are teaching earth-customs to the little green Martians who landed a year ago.

Mary Mason and Nancy Baker are stewardesses on the interplanetary rocket ship that takes Bill Bessette back and forth to Mars to learn their customs. Jackie Phaiah and Judy Mikkiton, still a happy twosome, are secretaries for the company that runs these passenger rocketships. Eileen Gelinas got them the jobs. She is married to the owner of the company.

Joan Brown now creates her own comic strip, the first to be published in the New York Times by popular demand.

Also in the entertainment field is John Huhtala, who directs the background jazz for "Peter Gunn."

Jean Wollow has just won the "Indianapolis 500" for her third straight crown.

Rolande Meunier, Arline Montstream, and Lea Trahan have found that commuting is too bothersome. They have taken up permanent residence beside the Nike Base.

Jerry Melanson, chief projectionist at the Orpheum Theatre, has just been fired after being late for the 365th time this year.

The Class of '59 produced one black sheep. Martha Pike, once the head seamstress at the House of Dior, has just been sentenced to twelve years in solitary confinement for incorporating her own weird innovations into the original designs.

K.H.S.'s Future Farmers of America must have certainly been worthwhile. Dick Cross and Dick Emond have been asked to leave town. Their new project suddenly expanded, and now they raise the largest crop of onions in the world! Everybody this side of the Connecticut River has been crying for months!

Janice Paul has just received world renown for her book entitled, "How To Win Your Man."

John Downs is enjoying himself as the only caddy in his own all-girl golf club.

There is a battle being waged over the living rooms of Danielson, Connecticut. Kathy Shekleton and Marilyn Grenon are two rival interior decorators; Marilyn specializes in Stone Age Styles, and Kathy is fighting for Modern Early American.

Daryl Ingalls has taken over her father's printing business and is still good-naturedly screaming "bloody murder" at the editors of the Killonian for not meeting that early deadline!

Richard Law, after deciding to abandon the Putnam girls, has followed in his brothers' footsteps and made the Air Force his career. His buddy, Ed Baranski, entered the Navy. Now both of them are highly-paid specialists in their field — licking stamps for the official service mail!

Kenny Burdick had to hire a private secretary, Claire Pelletier, to answer all his demands for public appearances with his famous accordion.

No one can recognize his friends any more. The craziest hair styles are here in town! Delores Desautels has created her own Space Age Hair Styles for the women, and no one is exactly sure what it is that Eddie Kaczor has done to the men's hair!

Tom Ray is now residing in Texas where he is finding the oil business much more prosperous and the card games much more exciting.

Pierre Lalumiere has just been elected "Mr. Danielson of 1979 ! ! ! "

Ulo Murd, the owner and operator of one of New York's largest art studios, has for his leading model Miss Agnes Sandholm.

Chris Krushefsky and Mary Quinn have recently taken over the ownership of Eatmore's. They just couldn't bear to leave it.

Ann Ethridge, the first woman president of the United States, has just won her second landslide victory over Tom Duprey, whose running-mate, Stewart Rivers, cast his vote for the wrong party.

Barbara Clements liked the course in hairdressing at the new technical school so much that she decided to stay there permanently as an instructor.

At the conclusion of the 1973-74 school year it has been heard that Kenny Brumfield, the social studies teacher at K.H.S., has given out more "double zeros" to "phonies" than any other teacher.

Poor Carolyn Cooper has just died of mortification and humiliation after misspelling the word "antidisestablishmentarianism."

Martin Randall and Robert Bowen are the envy of all the nation's women, as they are the proprietors of the largest mink farm in existence.

Del Caron's fantastic bowling scores are constantly confusing the mathematical mind of Jackie Veilleux, his chief scorekeeper.

Sandra Schmidt has become the first woman to fly around the world in 40 days — in a balloon!

Joe Beauregard is now the country's leading mechanic for old Roman chariots and other new modes of transportation. Joe received his excellent training from Peter Panteleakos, chief instructor of mechanics at Putnam Technical School.

Gordon Boisclair has worked his way up to assistant manager at the local A&P Store.
Vinnie Zurowski and Dick Privee are still trying to devise a system whereby they can get through high school without doing any homework.

Paul Swaggart has severed his ties with the Connecticut Bank and Trust Company and has recently established the "Easy-Come, Easy-Go Loan Company." It's an especially nice set-up, since Jean Nielsen is head teller and is making the necessary arrangements — ah-hem!

After Sandra Page did such a great job with the Killonian Yearbook, she was given the editorship of the Windham County Transcript.

Mike Anderson has just been awarded national recognition for being the most charming delivery boy in the IGA chain!

And yet one more member of the class of '59 has won statewide acclaim. Marlene Richardson was named the shortest school teacher of Connecticut. Carol Krzys, secretary to the chairman of state honors, took a few inches off the

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1959, put forth this document, our last will and testament, to be a lasting remembrance of our four years within the walls of K.H.S.

To the school, Marie Auclair wishes to return the flowers she cut for the Junior Prom decorations.

Jackie Phaiah leaves all the bobby pins she doesn't need to the girls who suffer with nightly pin-ups.

To anyone who likes to write letters, Arline Montstream leaves a stack to be answered.

Herb Motz gives his desert boots to any person on his way to the Sahara.

Betty Tourtellotte leaves the halls of K.H.S. playing Alouette on the French horn.

Jerry Melanson leaves the operation of the movie projectors to next year's goofers.

Mary Quinn sends her two-tone hairdo to Paris designers for next year's latest fad.

Bev Osterhoudt takes off in Ray's car, leaving the school buried under that familiar cloud of dust.

Earl Clements is the recipient of Leon Wilcox's cowboy shirts so that he may look sharp, feel sharp, be sharp in future rodeos.

Nancy Terwilleger leaves her famous locker to future "Daggers."

Jean Nielsen is able to leave now because she has finished typing up ads for a friend of hers.

Vinnie Zurowski wills his job at Johnnie's Market to any interested person, but thinks that he'd like to keep the truck for personal use.

Martha Pike leaves insisting to Mr. Koss that she is too old to be spanked.

Upon leaving this institution of higher education, Martin Randall leaves his height to Saul Ahola.

Stanley Ozog is the recipient of Allan Seppa's quiet ways. We trust that you will be a new person next year, Stanley!

Richard Privee gives the left-over doughnuts from Ag class to the cafeteria.

Joyce Racine saved a box of pretzels and a box of ginger snaps for next year's radiator gang.

Ann Ethridge returns her check stand at the A&P to Mr. Motz to balance, if possible.

Barbara Clements wills her floppy-eared costume to next year's Easter Bunny.

Ulo Murd leaves a year's subscription of the Norwich Bulletin to Mr. Roche just in case he still doesn't have a subscription.

Lucien (Jughead) Joly donates his basketball sneakers to be altered into two pairs; one for Mr. Nichols and one for Mr. Berthiaume.

Peter Kissa leaves Mr. Brine minus a few hairs and an appointment for a sound-effects rehearsal.

Dick (Porkabee) Allen takes his famous nickname with him simply because no one else wants it!

Joyce Fitzsimmons, the quietest girl in our class, doesn't want to make any noise so she leaves by the back door.

Wendy Flagg was supposed to be the recipient of Sandra Schmidt's pocketbook, but to everyone's disappointment, the pocketbook was too large for Wendy to lift.

Delores Desautels has finally completed her English notebook, and she wills it to Carol Gunn for future use. O.K., Mr. Brine?

Richard Cross leaves his huge belt buckle to Mr. Gaffney to hang on the wall of the Ag room along with his other plaques.

Joan Gallup departs for Colby Junior College taking her 93.6 average with her.

Bobby Bowen bequeaths his collection of Ag medals to anyone with a chest big enough to hold them all.

Tom Ray's last request was that his witty remarks and love for history be willed to anyone who knows how to drive an oil truck.

Lea Trahan leaves the girls' varsity basketball team minus one guard.

Paul Swaggart donates his first name and also his ability to tease the girls to Paul Brennan.

Mary Mason could think of nothing to leave, so she decided that the best thing to do would be to leave by the front door.

Joe Beauregard leaves his spare parts for cars to any prospective junk dealer.

Mr. Nichols is the lucky recipient of John Downs' prowess on the golf course.

Mike Anderson leaves his hot little Ford to be repaired by expert Charlie Downs.

Marilyn Grenon is supplying the Junior class with enough scotch tape to decorate the gym for next year's dances.

Wayne Lis leaves the pinball machine at Henry's with a permanent "Tilt."

Maryanne Juber leaves still firmly convinced that she flunked that last test.

To Mrs. Nichols goes Del Caron's bowling ability and a free string if she can beat his score.

Daryl Ingalls leaves for the Print Shop wondering if the yearbook is going to be ready by Friday.

Carol Krzys can't leave because she's all tangled up in adding machine paper.

Fernand Lemoine leaves Clarence Bonneau to clean up his sawdust in the shop.

Tom Duprey leaves his ambition to Phillip Larrow and warns him not to over-exert himself.

Diane LaBelle is the recipient of her sister's part-time job at the bank, but Barbara wouldn't part with her diamond for the world.

To save Donnie Keech time when he hurries home for lunch Bill Bessette wills him his handy locker outside of Room 1.

Cynthia Bunning is having trouble leaving in her white Ford. She finds it difficult to hold the doors closed and to steer at the same time.

Elaine Linkkila was planning to give her megaphone to the cheering squad but decided she needed it to make her quiet voice heard.

As Pauline Blain leaves for the telephone office we can hear her practicing "Number plee-uz."

John Huhtala alias Phil Everly, wills his hidden talent to next year's talent show. (It is available in 45 and 78 R.P.M.)

Eddie Baranski wills his beat-up old truck to Henry Ford's museum for Ancient Autos.

Florette Desrocher's "Auctioneer" song goes to the highest bidder.

Give Marcia Daker time, and some day she will come out of her dream world and discover that she has left a memorable past with the class of '59.

Ray Brien returns to claim his diploma and then leaves in his father's "Merc."

To any boy with enough time to take care of it, Dick Emond bestows his blond curl.

Pauline Blais heads South to be a cotton picker instead of a chicken plucker.

Eddie Kaczor leaves his love for the polka and a dance instruction booklet to Alfred Pietras.

Hedwig Wendler's ability in chemistry goes to anyone who will promise that he will not use his knowledge to blow up the school.

Russell Avery is offering to Steve Lafreniere at a very good price the rabbits which he bought from him.

Richard Rumrill needs a new notebook; consequently, he leaves his old one at the disposal of the Junior class.

Kenny Brumfield leaves with the singular honor of having been the only senior to put a cork in orbit around the lights in chem lab.

Nancy Baker donates her endless supply of jokes to Mr. MacDonald.

Chris Krushefsky wills her ability to talk her way out of detention to Carol Fortier.

Claire Pelletier leaves her mark of 100% on the Monroe Rhythm Add machine as a challenge to junior business students.

Peggy Evans leaves in search of a plumber to retrieve her chemistry paper which she accidentally flushed down the toilet.

Ann Ferriss sends her royal middle name back to Buckingham Palace.

Kenny Burdick sends his secret formula for cleaning white bucks to Pat Boone.

Janice Paul leaves wondering when she'll have time to make up her sociology tests.

Ronnie Levesque gives his pushcart from Gerardi's Market to Mr. Brine for the transportation of his children.

Jackie Veilleux leaves her happy smile and good sense of humor to anyone who feels gloomy.

To Herb Cooley goes all of Joe Miller's two hundred pounds which will certainly be an asset to Herb on the football field.

Richard Watson's captainship on the traffic squad goes to some able-bodied Junior.

Elaine Vadas wills her vast collection of blouses to Ruth Campbell.

Wilfred "Shorty" Pelletier wills his wallet-full of notes to Helen Caldwell for interesting reading in case life gets boring.

Carolyn Cooper leaves the Seniors of next year with no one to correct their English themes before "the last of the ninth inning."

Ronnie Ventura takes off in his convertible, leaving a choice spot in the school parking lot which can be claimed by an early-morning riser.

Beatrice Veilleux leaves Room 14 behind her and is looking forward to a happy future with Eddie.

Jean Wollow bequeaths a copy of the book she wrote, "What to do When Classes Get Dull," to Jane Anderson.

Linda Sigfridson leaves with a nurse's cap in one hand and a diploma in the other.

Judy Mikkiton wills her efficiency and business capabilities to Marie Lafrancois.

Eileen Gelinas loans her sun glasses and star to Colleen Dubuc to continue the good work as captain of the cheerleaders.

Lucille Beausoleil leaves her endless supply of "hiccups" to haunt the faculty.

"Jay" Wakefield is leaving because she thinks that four years of high school is enough for anyone.

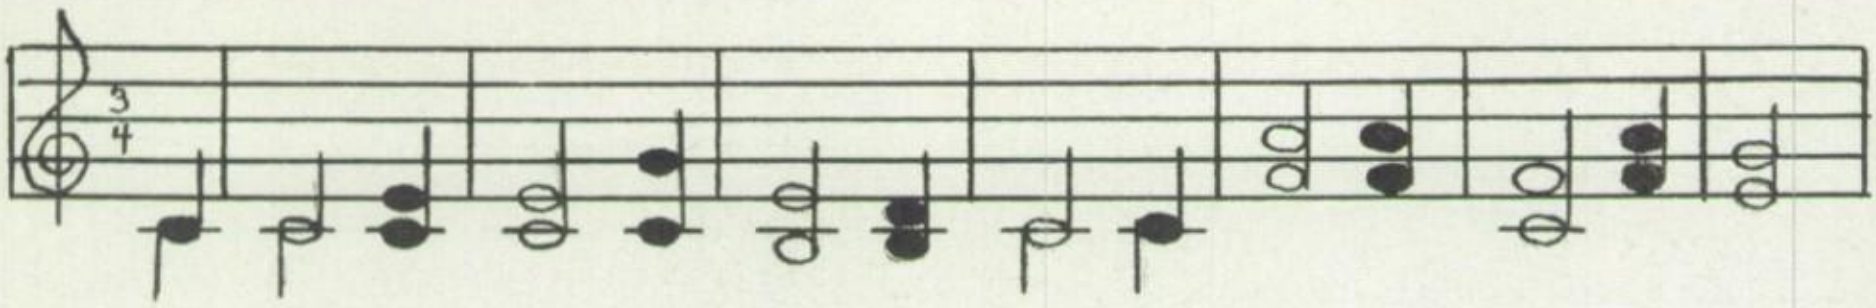
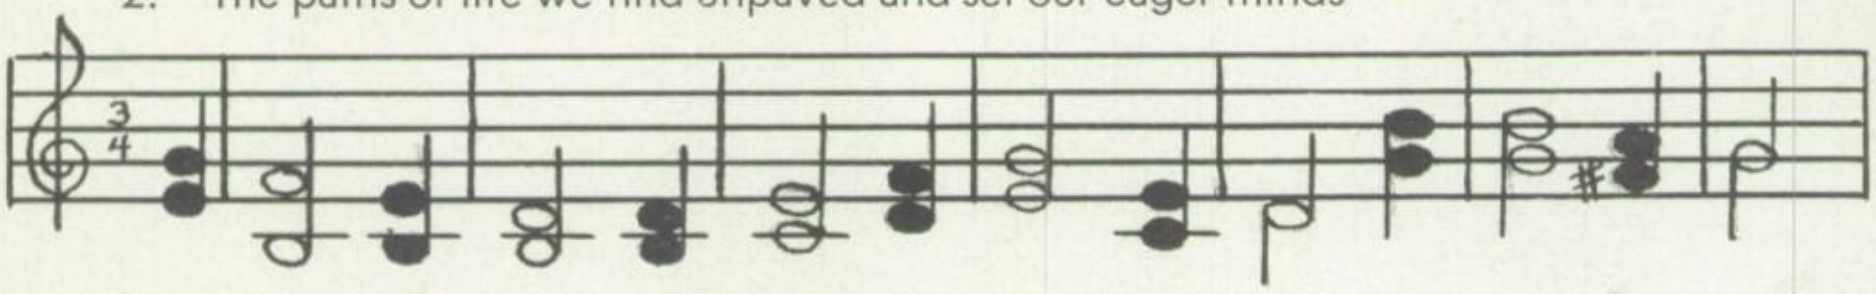
CLASS ODE

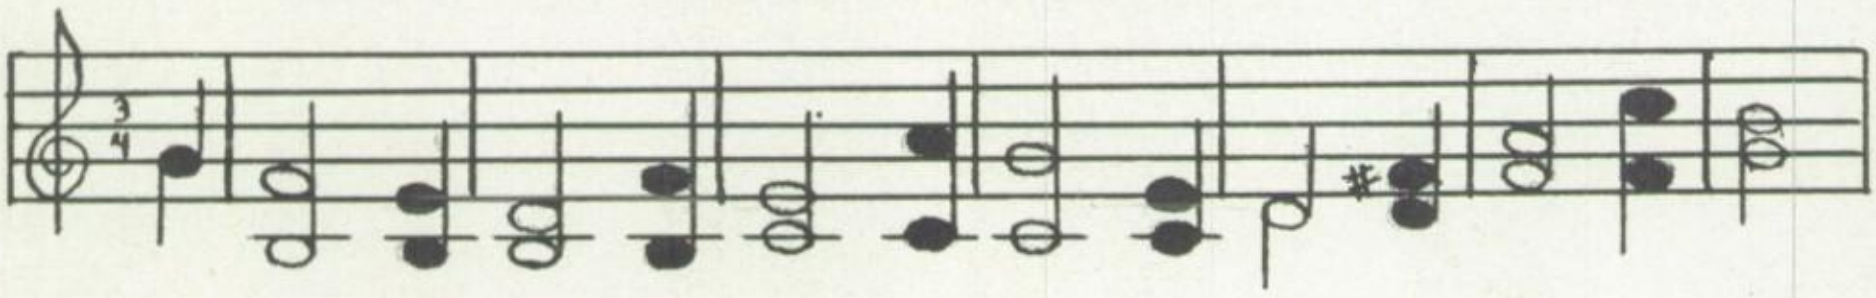
Words: J. Racine & M. Pike
Music: C. Cooper



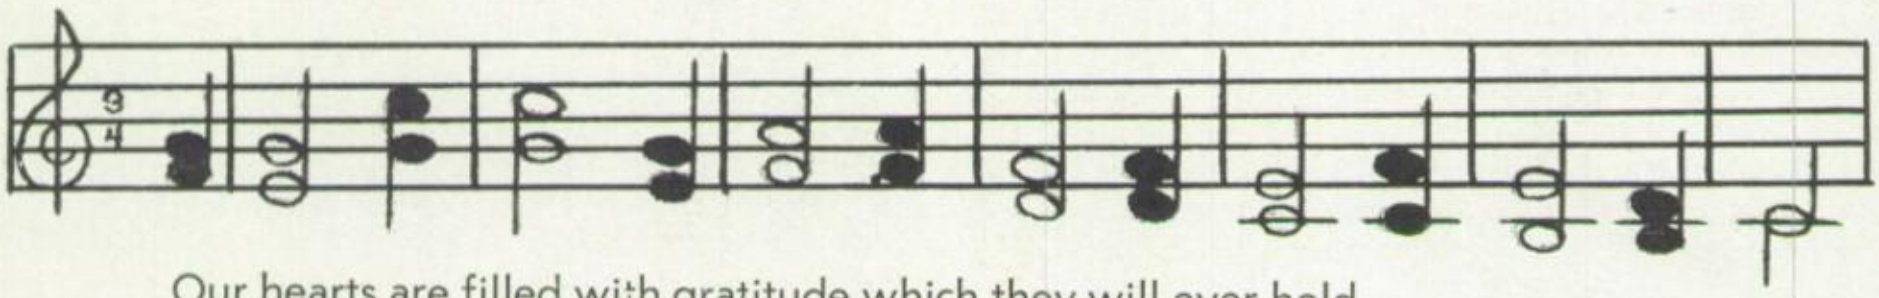
1. The years have passed, dear Killingly; with sober hearts we find
2. The paths of life we find unpaved and set our eager minds



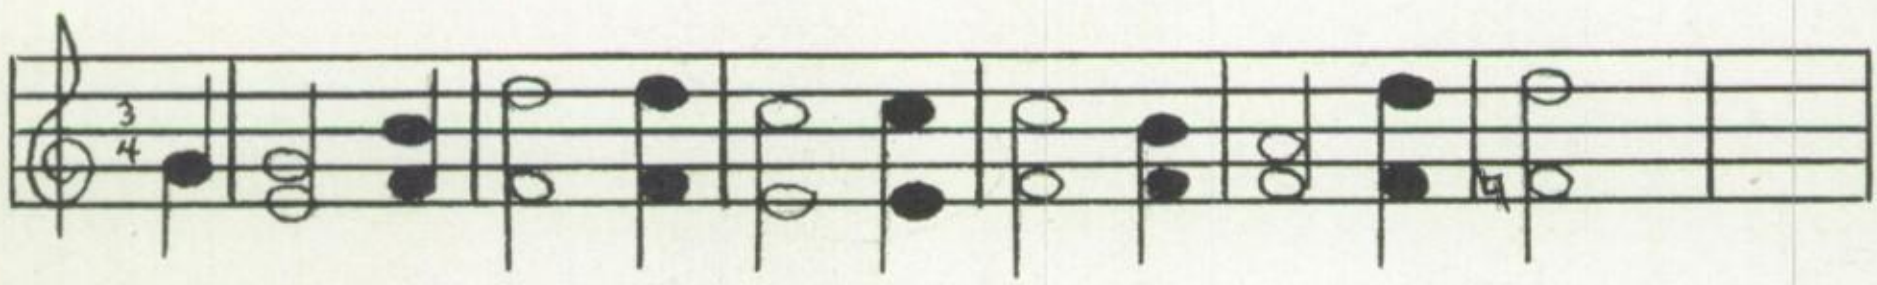
The sea of life stretched out before; the bay left far behind
To make the world a better place to some day leave behind.



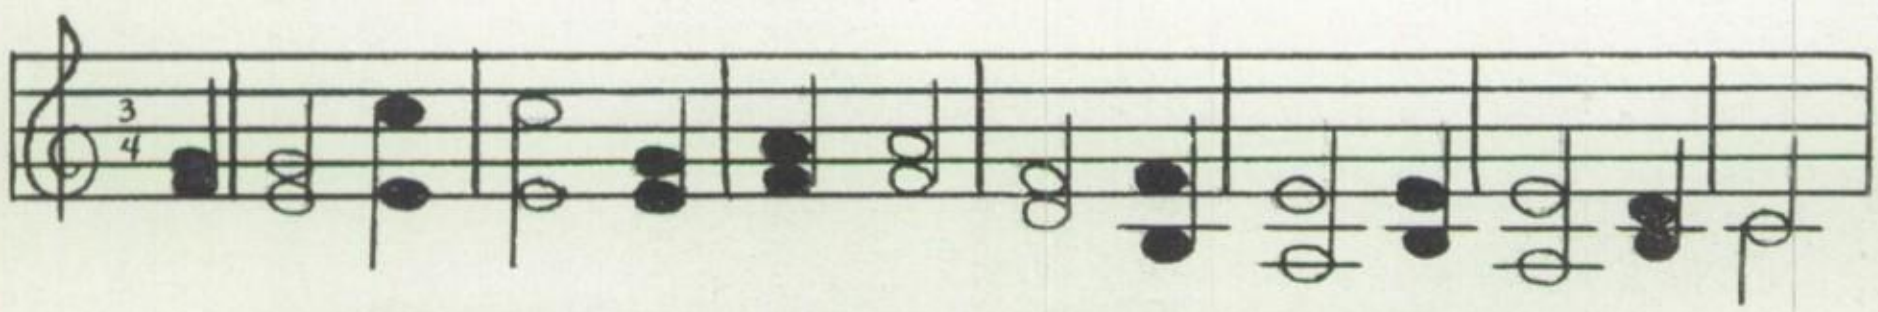
You've harbored us within your walls, prepared us for our goal
As on through life we proudly go, our hearts will ever turn



Our hearts are filled with gratitude which they will ever hold.
To mem'ries of our high school days for which we'll always yearn.



The doors are open wide to greet the world outside



With spirits light and heads raised high, we welcome it with pride.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to uphold the high ideals of our school, community, and country. Juniors who have attained an average of 93% during five semesters, or seniors who have attained an average of 90% during seven semesters, are eligible to be inducted into the National Honor Society. Character, service, and leadership are qualifications as important as scholarship for admission into the National Honor Society.

This year's National Honor Society has twenty-three members — seventeen seniors and six juniors. We are very proud of our senior members. Never before have so many seniors belonged to the National Honor Society in one year.

Under the expert guidance of our advisor, Mrs. Bond, and the leadership of our president, Richard Allen, we hold our meetings once a month. Our other officers are: Vice-president, Allan Seppa; Secretary, Marilyn Grenon; and Treasurer, Jean Nielsen.

The six juniors who will form the nucleus of the group expect it to be a very active one again next year.

Row 4: (L. to R.)—R. Allen, P. Peabody, P. Swaggart, P. Ruokonen, T. Singleton, D. Oatley, R. Golas.

Killingly High's Traffic Squad is an organization very beneficial to the school. Because of the famous words, "No talking, please!", "Keep to the right, please," and "One stair at a time, please," the Traffic moves smoothly through the halls. Mr. Oliva, its supervisor, efficiently manages the Traffic Squad by making sure that its members stay "on the ball" and yell loud enough! Many of our top-ranking seniors have achieved the honor of membership and rank on the Traffic Squad. The Senior Class is proud of them.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Under the able direction of Mr. Edward Gaffney, the 1958-1959 F.F.A. has been a very industrious group. The boys have carried on many projects beneficial to K.H.S., the Brooklyn School, Killingly Central, and Killingly Memorial School. We owe the clean appearance of the front of our school to the F.F.A. boys; those doughnuts and milk every Tuesday morning in the cafeteria certainly gave them the good old "get up and go," and with this they accomplished a great deal! Thanks, boys; you've done a fine job!

SCIENCE

Mr. Charles Cotton recently received an award for his outstanding work in the field of nuclear science. This award enabled him to attend the conference on the atom in Atlantic City, New Jersey. Charles Ennis, an excellent student in science at Killingly, accompanied Mr. Cotton on this trip. Both benefited greatly from this experience.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

U. S. History Students on Steps of Capitol

During the February vacation, the Junior Class had the great privilege of visiting Connecticut's House of Representatives. Mr. Giles, K.H.S. United States History instructor, thought the trip was an integral part of his history course, and through his careful planning the juniors spent a very enjoyable day. Besides Mr. Giles, several other chaperons accompanied the group to Hartford. They included Supt. and Mrs. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, and Mr. Koss.

Two very fine coaches were added to the squad this season, Mr. Brown and Mr. Allard, who helped to raise the spirits of everyone. After many strenuous practices, the team was victorious in their first outing by routing Plainfield 38-0. They defeated Griswold by the same score and captured a hard fought win over a tough Stonington team. Co-captains Downs and Watson and also Richard Privee represented the seniors on the team.

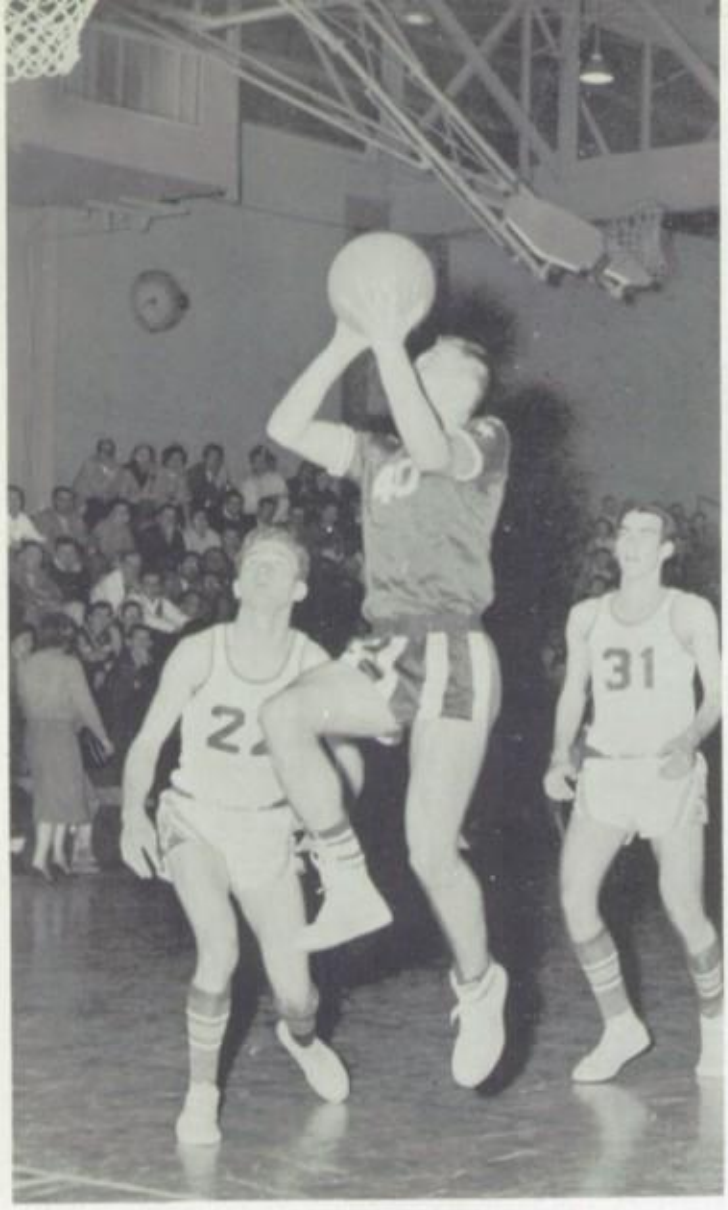
Led by the co-captains Wayne Lis, Ken Brumfield, and Dick Allen, the 1958-59 basketball squad was a very successful one, compiling a 14-6 record. They were victorious in their first nine starts on the home court, although they hit some bad luck while on the road. In the season's finale, the team avenged a previous defeat by boasting a tremendous win over a strong Fitch team. However, they were unsuccessful in their tournament attempts. The team also included seniors Jughead Joly, Dick Watson, and John Downs.



High scoring Wayne Lis demonstrates the form that helped him to lead the team in scoring.

TRACK

The hopes for a very good track team this year are high. Mr. Nichols has been working with them constantly after school, and the team trounced Griswold in their first meet of the season. Almost all the members of the team are lettermen who already have one year of experience under their belts. If these experienced track men, with the addition of many new prospects, turn out successfully, we should have a very good year.

This year the seniors are very well represented. Ken Brumfield and Dick Watson lead the parade of returning lettermen. Also representing the Senior Class are John Downs, Peter Kissa, Peter Lalumiere, and Wayne Lis.

BASEBALL

Although the season is still in its early stages, all indications point to a very tremendous year. Coach Berthiaume has hopes of a possible Class B championship team. The team won three of its early games by lop-sided scores and hopes for more of the same in the future. With the spectacular pitching of seniors Ken Brumfield and Dick Emond and the slugging of John Downs and Fred Ricci, the team is almost certain to be a strong contender.

GOLF

This year's golf team looks like the best one seen at Killingly since it was originated only a few years ago. The two standouts on the team are seniors, John Downs and Del Caron. They have done very well in the past and are expected to be up to par again this year. Another experienced golfer is Fred Ricci who has also helped the team very much.

BEAT

PUTNAM

Spirits are high every year as everyone begins preparation for the annual "Turkey-Day Classic" — Killingly vs. Putnam on the gridiron.

Enthusiasm is sparked by the cheerleaders and the majorettes who present a rousing pep rally each year backed by the morale-building support of the school band. Then, too, the annual "Beat Putnam Dance" sponsored by the Girls' Sports Club is a yearly spirited event. During intermission, the very halls of the school are rocked by the tumultuous roar of the cheering students in an all-out effort to cheer the Redmen on to victory. All in all, the week before the annual Thanksgiving Day game is certainly one of the most exciting ones of the entire school year.

win first and second prizes respectively. Barbara LaBelle, Marlene Richardson and Jean Champany also did a creditable job.

Our Senior Hop, "White Magic," was held on the brisk night of January 30. A winter wonderland motif adorned the walls of the K.H.S. gym while couples glided to the music of Raymond Stone and his orchestra. The picturesque scene of the evening was the crowning of the Senior Hop Queen, Sandra Page. Martha Pike and Jean Nielsen stood beside her as attendants.

The Annual D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award was presented to Jean Nielsen, a most deserving member of our class.

Marcia Daker and Russell Avery brought pride to our class when they won first and third places respectively in the 35th Annual Speaking Contest.

On February 19, Mr. Fisher interrupted our class meeting to inform us that Jean Nielsen and Joan Gallup were Valedictorian and Salutatorian. Hats off to Jean and Joan for their scholastic achievements!

We were further bequeathed with honor when Richard Allen was presented the Bausch and Lomb Science Award.

On March 13 the National Honor Society held its annual induction ceremony. The Senior class was proud and honored to have the largest group of inductees in Killingly's history. Seniors pledged to membership included Martha Pike, Sandra Page, Marlene Richardson, Fred Ricci, Judy Mikkiton, Marcia Daker, Jacqueline Phaiah, Claire Pelletier, Florette Desrochers, Carolyn Cooper and Shirley Codding.

In the latter part of May, preparations were made for our last informal dance.

With the coming of June, we began looking forward to the most treasured moments of our school days; our class outing at Ted Hilton's, the Senior reception, Class Day and finally graduation. Now graduation has become a reality, and we are ready to depart, each our separate ways. We wish to thank you, Killingly, for guiding us through these four memorable years. To Mr. Payne, Mr. Fisher, and to all the teachers, the class of 1959 sincerely wishes to thank you. To you, Mr. Brine, the Senior Class is indebted. Your lively personality and witty remarks have added a spark to our English classes, play rehearsals, class meetings and all our Senior class activities. Thank you Mr. Brine!

As we leave today, we shall carry with us the knowledge and ideals which you, Killingly, have taught us during these past years; for tomorrow we shall be needing them. The bay we have crossed, the sea lies ahead.

Respectfully submitted,
Marilyn Grenon, Historian

form stating Marlene's height in order to see her old-time Killingly classmate get this honor. Joyce Racine is one of our country's foremost lady wrestlers.

There is very much confusion in a certain Connecticut hotel. Pauline Blain says "Number, please," eight hours a day, while beside her sits Pauline Blais, the hotel secretary. As if that isn't bad enough, Pauline Fournier has just been hired as the hotel's first female bell-hop.

Leon Wilcox is getting wealthy raising super-sized mushrooms on Venus and exporting them to the little green Martians who just love mushroom soup.

A flash has been reported by newsman, Lucien Joly, over inter-planetary station M-A-R-S. Ray Brien, in his new paint shop on the moon, carelessly opened a can of ordinary earth paint. Without gravity, the paint rose into the atmosphere and is now slowly covering the whole moon with a thin coat of chartreuse shellac. Lucille Beausoleil, who was in the shop at the time of the mishap, is suing for damages. Though she has cleaned the paint from most of the rest of her, we fear that her once long blond hair may remain chartreuse indefinitely.

More headlines! Shirley Codding and Maryanne Juber, who were two of K.H.S.'s smartest students, are wandering jobless and hungry on the moon. They have found that it is impossible to type while both they and their typewriters are floating around in the airless space.

This machine can find no record of Richard Allen in 15 years. It seems that he disappeared very mysteriously the day after his graduation in 1959.

The paper is charred and burned after this last statement. The electrocamerofuturograph did its job and could stand no more. The Class of 1959 of Killingly High School had completely exhausted its powers.

CLASS WILL (Continued from page 63)

Shirley Codding wills her job at Ray's Coffee Shop to any girl with an interest in the A&P.

Agnes Sandholm leaves her choice spot in front of the radiator to Linnea Lindstrom.

Stuart River's ability to fall asleep in English class goes to anyone who can get away with it.

Jeanne Champany wills the deed to the floor space between lockers 103 and 156 to next year's occupants. Notice: This space is to be occupied without fail for at least 15 minutes every morning.

Peter Panteleakos leaves the doors of the school open to his younger brothers, Alex, Charlie, and Billy.

Marlene Richardson leaves her writing on the wall in Room 13 to Edie Quinn.

Jane Podolski returns her glockenspiel to Mr. Spencer and leaves him to find a new person to play it.

Sandra Page, the great relay runner (?), does not feel that her gym ability is worth leaving.

Kathy Shekleton leaves to Betty Holgerson these words of wisdom: Size is what you make it.

Richard Law leaves the gas pumps at the Shell station in the care of Rita Verraneault.

It has been the tradition for red-headed girls to will their hair to someone; however, Pauline Fournier decided that female Yul Brynners are not the style.

Pete Lalumiere has twangy guitar, will travel.

Joan Brown leaves her collection of dance posters in Mr. Koss' closet at the disposal of Kerry Brown.

Trombonist Barry Spencer leaves his spot in the band to his brother Dale.

We wish Rolande Meunier could leave one of her hot fudge sundaes from Deary Bros. to each member of the Senior class.

Fred Ricci's ability as a leader is being left to the next president of the Senior class. We trust that the Juniors of this year will make good use of it. We wish them all the best of everything in their Senior year.

We hereby sign this document with the knowledge that the above articles are neither lawful nor compulsory.

Whenever we look upon these pages
May we all again be one
With our hands clasped each in the other's.

For this is still and always our yearbook —
Our school —
And us.
